— Why Exhibit at COMPLAST Nigeria 2027

An import-dependent market that needs what you sell

Nigeria imports roughly 70% of its processing machinery and 80% of its raw materials. There is no entrenched domestic alternative to displace — every serious processor and converter is buying from companies like yours.

Africa's largest population, structurally growing demand

232 million people, young, urbanising fast. Packaging, FMCG, construction and agriculture drive continuous polymer demand — 3,000+ plastics processing industries, 1.1 million tonnes annual polymer consumption, growing at 8.1%.

Lagos — the ECOWAS gateway

West Africa's commercial capital and the natural distribution base for the wider ECOWAS market. Distributors covering Ghana, Benin, Togo, Côte d'Ivoire and Cameroon source through Lagos.

Decision-makers, not browsers

91% of documented 2024 visitors were owners, directors, CEOs or managers. Conversations at this show end in orders, agencies and distributorships — not just enquiries.

A proven venue and format

Landmark Centre, Victoria Island — West Africa's leading purpose-built exhibition venue, home to COMPLAST Nigeria since inception. Machinery handling, live demo power and compressed air included.

Springboard to a multi-country programme

One organiser, one conversation — extend the same stand into COMPLAST Kenya (July 2027) and COMPLAST Sri Lanka (August 2027) with coordinated multi-market rates.

What exhibitors take home

- Distributor & agency appointments for Nigeria and ECOWAS
- Direct machine and material orders • dealer network expansion
- Brand visibility across West Africa's largest plastics market.
